- Snake through rocky terrain on a 100-year-old backcountry wagon trail
- Take a steep descent into Diamondback Gulch, a deep ravine created long ago by running water
- Enjoy glimpses of Arizona's ranching past, where cattle once roamed the landscape
- Catch views of Sedona's most recognizable red-rock formations
- Learn little-known area facts and folklore from an expert local guide
- Surround yourself with amazing views of Coconino National Forest from an open-air Pink Jeep® Wrangler
